

Incident Reporting and Investigation

- All health, safety, technical integrity, security and environmental incidents, including near misses, are openly reported, investigated, analyzed and documented.

Incident Reporting and Investigation

- Major incidents are investigated by a multi-function / level team with participation and leadership from outside the Business Unit.

Incident Reporting and Investigation

- Incident investigations, including identification of root causes and preventive actions, are documented and closed-out.

Incident Reporting and Investigation

- Information gathered from incident investigations is analyzed to identify and monitor trends and develop prevention programs.

Incident Reporting and Investigation

- Lessons learned from investigations are shared across Company, and personnel take appropriate action upon receipt of such information.

Incident Reporting and Investigation

- Mutual sharing of lessons learned and good practice is encouraged within the wide energy and chemical industry.

